JAPAN CULTURAL EXPO 2.0
Nara Prefecture Complex of Man'yo Culture
2024 Special Anniversary Lecture

Our museum opened on September 15, 2001.

It is where Japan's oldest coins, made in the late 7th century, were produced by Emperor Temmu.

2024 marks the 1,300th anniversary of Emperor Shomu's accession to the throne.

To commemorate this occasion, there will be a special lecture on Emperors Temmu and Shomu.

The lecture will be archived on the museum's official channel with English subtitles.

The archive is scheduled to become available in March 2025.

For more information, please visit our website.

September 15, 2024 [Sun.] 14:00~16:30 [Doors open 13:30]
