

This map illustrates the geographical context of the Nara Prefecture, highlighting the Katsuragi River (大和川) and its tributaries. The river flows from the north, through Nara City (奈良市), and continues south towards the Osaka Bay. The map shows the prefectural boundaries of Nara, Kyoto, Osaka, and Wakayama. Key locations marked include Nara City, Uji City (宇治市), Yamato City (大和町), and various smaller towns and villages. The map also indicates the location of the Katsuragi River basin and the surrounding mountainous terrain.
